

TEN NEW NOBLES NOW.

Oasis Temple of the Mystic Shrine Initiates Candidates.

IT WAS AN ENJOYABLE OCCASION.

A Large Number of Out-of-Town Nobles were President—Very Successful Initiatory Ceremonies—Some of the People who Took Part—The Coming Visit of Oasis Temple to Huntington a Big Event.

Last night was a gala one in Shrine circles—a class of ten candidates safely passed over the burning sands, which had been sprinkled plentifully over the floors at Arion hall, on the South Side, where the ceremonies took place, and passed the novitiate state into the mysteries of Shrinehood. Altogether last evening's Shrine event was one of the most enjoyable in the brilliant history of Oasis Temple. Though the class, which was composed of ten candidates, was not the largest that has been initiated in the local temple, the initiatory proceedings were probably more enjoyable and hilarious than any past ones. The following gentlemen composed the class: William Alexander, of Bridgeport, G. E. Miller and F. M. Kiser, of Mannington, T. A. Neal, of Anson, W. E. Neal, of Sherman Heights, W. Va.; G. D. Bold, of Fairmont, C. Craig, of Bridgeport; C. S. Frint and J. B. Myers, of St. Clairsville, and W. E. Shapleigh, of Wheeling.

The initiatory proceedings were conducted by the officers of Oasis Temple, as follows: Potentate, Frank E. McCoy; chief rabban, Stephen Waterhouse; assistant rabban, William F. Shaffer; high priest and prophet, Matthew K. Wolff; oriental guide, John K. List; treasurer, William A. Wilson; recorder, E. C. Schoen; ceremonial masters, W. H. Manning and J. E. Robinson; marshal, E. P. Wheat; captain of the guard, F. C. Williams; nichemist, Thos. B. McLean; outer guard, T. W. Bliss; azra, Thomas Carnahan; asad, E. W. Dunaway.

The Arab patrol was composed of the following gentlemen: James B. McKee, captain; J. E. Rankin, G. M. Ford, D. A. Taylor, F. W. Henderson, Henry Elig, W. C. Edwards, S. B. Warwick, C. E. Van Keuren, E. A. Hobbs.

The attendance at the festivities was very fine, over 150 being present. Among the out of town visitors were the following: A. A. J. Gaskill, of Pittsburgh; J. W. Boyers, of Padon's Valley; Robert M. Eaton, of Leavensworth, Kas.; J. C. Payne, of San Francisco; John T. Rankin, F. P. Barber and M. L. Blackburn, of Bellaire; J. H. Crawford and George J. Gildroy, of Pittsburgh; Judge I. H. Gaston, of St. Clairsville; George Summers, George Giffen, W. S. Fisher, F. W. Henderson, H. M. Clark and J. E. Waters, of Bellaire; George B. Perham, of Philadelphia; W. L. Shuck, of Graton; Ezra McConnell, of Flushing; E. A. Seraford, W. I. Hoge, J. K. Davis, Captain Frank Bert, J. L. Kirkland and A. C. Graham, of Mannington; Dr. A. B. Walkinslow, of Wellsburg; E. N. Boggs, of St. Clairsville; Edward L. Rose, of Binghamton, N. Y.; F. H. Atkinson, of Cadiz; F. R. Sapp, of Palestine; D. McKane, of Pittsburgh; W. W. Walker, of St. Paul, Minn.; R. C. Wiford, of Petroleum; James Cunningham, of Mannington; J. L. Melvaine, of the Tuscarawas Advocate, and Judge O. P. Taylor, of New Philadelphia.

It was nearly 11 o'clock when the last of the ten candidates had crossed the inevitable "burning sands" which had been prepared at a white heat especially for the occasion, and had reached the basis called "Oasis" than which in the opinion of many of the visiting orientals there is no pleasanter spot on the face of this green earth. The ceremonies were attended with even an unusual amount of noise and from the sounds of laughter which came from the upper apartments the sport have been fast and furious. This was confirmed when an occasional glimpse was obtained of the unlucky mortals who thought they wanted to be "in it." A more demoralized looking set of people is hard to find anywhere. This is not surprising either—a man isn't supposed to be look happy, or to say the least, unconcerned, when he has passed through what has been mildly called "deviltry" by some people and "fiendishness" by others. All sores and wounds were forgotten, however, when after the ordeal was over, the one hundred and fifty gentlemen present sat down to the elegant banquet spread for the occasion in the dining hall by Mrs. Zeigefelder.

The Shrine men are looking forward with interest to their coming visit to Huntington, on next Thursday, when

A New Being That Tired Feeling

Full Strength and Appetite Given by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

The following is from Mr. Thomas C. Barrett, of Mobile, Ala., a well known member of the city fire department, attached to Hook and Ladder Co. No. 4.

"I have been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla as a spring medicine and blood purifier. It is the best blood medicine I have ever used and for an appetizer it is excellent. I have taken several different kinds of medicine for the blood but Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved to be the best."

Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient, yet easy in action. Sold by all druggists. 25c.

JOB & WORK NEATLY AND PROMPTLY EXECUTED AT THE INTELLIGENCER JOB ROOMS.

Oasis Temple meets in the Masonic hall there, and a class of twenty-five candidates will wade through a sea of sand brought especially for the occasion from the neighboring Big Sandy river. After the candidates have struggled through and reached the promised land of Shrinehood a banquet will be served at the new Adelphi hotel. Fifty or twenty Wheeling Shriners will attend.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

MATINEE at the Grand to-day.

THE GRAND this evening—"The Fast Mail."

A FORCE of men is at work cleaning the paved streets on the island, which needed it badly.

TODAY is pay day at the Riverside mill. Wheeling Mining Company's banks and at Bloch Bros.' tobacco factory.

THE Ritchie grammar school students will give a concert and entertainment at the school building on Saturday, March 30.

JOHN MANITON was arrested by Officer Scally yesterday as a suspected lunatic, and Squire Gillespie sent him to jail to await an examination.

THERE was an incipient fire at A. J. Schultze's photograph gallery, on the South Side, yesterday morning, which was extinguished before an alarm had been turned in.

WHEELING is to turn out a new theatrical company, and the members, six in number, sail under the name of the Boston Novelty Company, and they have booked for a number of towns.

J. NAPOLEON B. LITTLE was arrested at Elm Grove last night by Constable Anderson for drunkenness. He was hauled a half mile, to the motor, in a wheelbarrow and brought to town. His case comes up before Squire Arkle this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WHEELING Council No. 1, Jr. O. U. A. M., will hold a very interesting meeting at their hall to-night. Members of Martin's Ferry and other lodges will be present. The Oriental degree will be conferred on seven members, and a good time is promised to all.

Mrs. STEVE C. A. WHITE, of Chicago, writes to City Clerk Thoner asking if there is in Wheeling a family named Ashley. She says her ancestors of that name settled here years ago, and that she has lost sight of them. She is getting up a "family tree," and wants to hear from all the Ashleys.

"HOSS AND HOSS," at the Opera House last night, was enjoyed by a full house. It is fun from start to finish, and the specialties are all new and first class. The Bowery dance, the poker game and a few of the funniest features have been retained, but mainly the piece is new—it can be called a piece. The singing is all good.

IS looking over some old papers that had belonged to his father Ed. Deville the other day found one of the large lithographed tickets which were voted for Buchanan and Breckenridge in 1856. It is quite a curiosity. Portraits of both candidates are on it. Sherard Clemens was the candidate for elector from this district.

WHEN the new schedule goes into effect next Sunday on the Pan-Handle, the Pittsburgh morning accommodation train leaving here at 8:20, city time, will connect, as formerly, with the fast train at Wheeling Junction for Steubenville, who can then have a fast train for Pittsburgh.—Steubenville Star.

THURSDAY afternoon there was a bad freight wreck in the B. & O. yards at Bonwood Junction. A long freight from Chicago had pulled into the yards and was standing there. The yard engine was shifting cars, and there was some misunderstanding as to the placing of a switch, for the yard engine ran on the same track with the freight. The result was that the freight got a side swipe, and seven of the cars, containing lumber principally, were badly damaged.

OF INTEREST TO LABOR.

The Investigation of Judge Jenkins' Injunction May Prove Interesting.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—The congressional investigation into the course of United States Judge Jenkins in enjoining prominent labor leaders and Northern Pacific employees from counseling or taking part in a strike promises to have important developments. On the appointment to-day of Representative Boatner as head of the committee to conduct the investigation, he conferred with his associates on the committee, Messrs. Torrey and Stone, and with Representative McGann, who inaugurated the investigation. It was decided to notify Judge Jenkins of the proposed investigation, and to leave it for him to suggest what course he desired to pursue, either in appearing in person or by counsel. It was also decided to notify all of the labor leaders and Northern Pacific employees who were named in the writs of injunction issued by Judge Jenkins.

There is no intimation that the judge will be summoned to appear here. Letters were sent to several officers of railway employees' associations who had been enjoined from counseling a strike, among them being P. M. Arthur, of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers; S. E. Wilkinson, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen; E. E. Clark, Order of Railway Conductors and P. S. Sargent, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen.

These chiefs were included in Judge Jenkins' injunction, as their influence in counseling and controlling a strike was recognized as powerful.

The subordinate employees of the road who are enjoined, have also been notified of the investigation.

THE INCOME TAX.

A Bitter Fight Will Be Waged Upon It in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9.—Undoubtedly there will be a determined effort, when the tariff bill reaches the senate, to have the income tax feature of the bill eliminated, and it looks as if the Democratic senators who are not satisfied the bill will make the tariff point of attack. Senator Hill will lead off in the assault upon the income tax in his forthcoming speech, and he will probably be supported by Senators Smith, Brice, Murphy and a few other Democratic senators, as well as by a majority of the Republican senators. The opponents of the tariff bill claim that the bill will provide sufficient revenue to meet the requirements of the government without the addition of the income tax, and because of this fact there is no longer any excuse for it.

The minority if not all the Democratic members of the finance committee will hold out stubbornly for the tax. One of them has said that he believes it to be the most popular feature of the bill and while they would expect to lose some Democratic senators on an amendment to strike out this portion of the bill that they will have all three of the Populists and about ten Republicans.

NERVE DEATHS.

The Number Growing at a Frightful Rate.

The Proportion Has Increased 20 Per Cent in Forty Years.

The Boston Journal Asks, "What the Remedy?"

And Finds the Answer Not a Hard One.

A Quarter of All Deaths Due to American Disease.

The Boston Journal is certainly to be admired.

One of Boston's greatest newspapers, it frankly devotes some of its energetic editorial space to the subject, which at this season is of more importance to this and every community than all other topics.

"One hears the voice of the man whose knowledge of nerves is almost unbounded," says the Journal, "saying that beyond any dispute nervousness is growing upon us at a frightful rate."

Quoting from Dr. Weir Mitchell it continues: "In some busy centers he finds that the number of deaths due to nervous causes has increased 20 per cent in forty years; that one-fourth of the deaths now are from nervous diseases. His opinion is very confident, too, that the Americans are, from this cause, becoming a short-lived people."

A clear statement of the nervous weakness among the dwellers in cities and towns would send a pang of horror and alarm through the country.

Women are more under the influence of this terrible scourge than men; and town dwellers more than country folk. The Journal asks what is the remedy, and finds an answer readily.

Hundreds of tired mothers, anxious housewives, school teachers and too ambitious scholars—the very flower of American womanhood—yield to the strain of the serious affairs of life. Overwork and unnatural worry condemn a host of American women to spend their after years on a sofa or in a sick room, and to be a burden instead of a help to those who are dearest to them.

Often times excruciating pain as in neuralgia, rheumatism, and heart trouble, but more often (especially in the spring) "that tired feeling," is nature's cry for better nutrition in order to resist the fearful strain on the nerves and vital organs. The remedy is known to every physician and to thousands who have been benefited by it. Men and women who find themselves getting irritable, nervous, thin, "run down" and ailing should take Paine's celery compound. It feeds tired, exhausted nerves, stores the blood with food for the wasted tissues, and purifies it of the impure humors which result from its stagnant, unhealthy condition.

Nothing has ever equalled Paine's celery compound for giving tone to the stomach and a renewed appetite. It strikes to the root of rheumatism, neuralgia, diseases of the heart, the liver, kidneys, and all disorders due to poor, thin blood and underfed nerves. Poor appetite, continual headaches, loss of strength, nervous debility, and a scrofulous, unhealthy condition of the skin at this season are sure signs of nervous weakness.

Paine's celery compound will rob one of the "run down" feeling, the languor and despondency that come from badly nourished nerves, thin, pale blood, and underfed organs of the body.

New life, a buoyant feeling, and the joyousness of health will come when plenty of good red blood begins to fill the arteries and invigorate the system.

This is just what Paine's celery compound is doing for thousands of tired men and women throughout the whole extent of the country.
